

A tribute from a son to his Mother

A tribute from a Yogi to his Root Guru

An invitation from Khenchen Lama Rinpoche to his students and friends

May all Sentient Beings benefit

“I am sending this note now as an invitation to my students, friends and anyone who would like to donate towards purchasing a piece of land where a stupa and a house will be established as the Memorial for my Mom.”

Dearest Mother, Urgen Drolma

Namo Arya Taraya.

Dharmakaya nature is Samantabhadra.

Samboghakaya is the luministic nature of Vajradhara.

Nirmanakaya is great compassion nature of three lineages.

All in union, my Root Guru and my Mother,
I pray.

Grateful kindness, Mother Urgen Drolma.

Her emotion is Heart Guru and she has seen Buddha.

She knows the nature of Buddha.
Her life and meditation are in union.

Her nature is radiant, luminous!
She is just like Tara.

Her motivation is to benefit sentient beings to reach the great liberation right now.

“in memory of my Mother's Pure Land.
And for people to feel Joy and to be a practitioner's garden.

It is a simple meditation house for my Mom's Stupa. It is also for Dharma practitioners and for the liberation of all sentient beings just like my Mom did.”

I named it Orgyen Khandro Ling.

Orgyen: Palace

Khandro: Dakini

Ling: Land or Garden

A Palace, a Garden, a Land for Dakinis

“In this past year we have rented another property to host a temporary memorial stupa for my Mom.

At this time, it seems important to buy this land to build a Memorial so we are not paying rent year after year.”

Temporary Placement for the Golden Stupa, Statue and Texts in Li-Jiang, China

Permanent Site for the Golden Stupa

After several consultations with the mirror divination master from Tibet, and having receiving several auspicious dreams of the site location

Rinpoche has shortlisted some possible sites in Li-Jiang area, Yunnan, China

Li-Jiang, Yunnan

Li-Jiang is surrounded by some of the most stunning natural scenery in the world

Home to many different minority cultures living together in harmony, including Tibetan, Yi, and the Naxi, one of the most unique societies in the world

Li-Jiang is one of the only places in China where the minority peoples maintain a strong sense of cultural identity, evident in the traditional dress, their belief systems, and customs.

Li-Jiang Old Town

UNESCO World Heritage Site

Old Town of Li-Jiang is a national historical and cultural city. It was built in the late 13th century AD

In December 1997, it was included in the “World Cultural Heritage” list by the UNESCO World Heritage Committee

It is also called the “City of Bridges” because of its web of canals and bridges throughout the city

Li-Jiang, Yunnan, Historical Significance to Buddhism

Southern Silk Road (Tea-Horse Road)

Li-Jiang, key stop of the ancient Southern Silk Road (Tea-Horse Road)

The original Tantric Buddhist teachings spread to Tibet by way of the "Tea and Horse Road" into northwestern Yunnan

Theravada teachings spread along maritime routes and through northern Mainland Southeast Asia into southern and central Yunnan

Mahayana teachings came into eastern Yunnan from China and northern Vietnam

Proposed Land

Baisha Old Town (Old Town of White Sand), Yunnan

The lazy Yu-Long (Jade Dragon) River winds through the heart of Baisha Old Town, a village dating back over 1,000 years set amid the spectacular landscape of the Guilin and Yangshuo area.

Proposed Land

Baisha Old Town (Old Town of White Sand), Yunnan

It is 7.5 miles north of the Li-Jiang Old Town

Proposed Land

- The land is about 10,000 sq-ft in size, with a beautiful view of the scenic Yu-Long (Jade Dragon) Snow Mountain
- It has two small old structures, though not livable, but provides foundations for the future building

15 minutes walk from the proposed land. Yu-Long (Jade Dragon) Snow Mountain can be seen in the background

The Vision for Orgyen Khandro Ling

The place will

- host the Stupa in Memory of Rinpoche's Mom, the manifest of her Pure Land,
- be a practitioner's garden for mediation,
- be an inclusive space for people of all walks and all faiths to reflect, to relax, and to open their hearts and minds to the beauty of the land, a manifestation of the Buddha Nature

“...in memory of my Mother's Pure Land. And for people to feel Joy and to be a practitioner's garden”

Please understand how important it is for me to do this in my lifetime. It is important because I love my Mom and I wish all sentient beings liberation.

If you would like to donate, you can choose any amount. This will be good virtue for you. It will be good virtue for my Mom, for me, and for you.

This is why I am inviting my students, and friends to donate to Orgyen Khandro Ling.

This will make my dream, my wish and my Mom's Memorial come true to benefit all sentient beings and for them to have liberation.

Thank you.
